IMPORTANCE OF

The Gemara (Kidushin 46b) derives that if one separates inferior produce as Terumah in order to keep the superior quality produce for himself, the separation is valid, despite the fact that the Torah says: ולא תשא עליו חטא בהרימכם את חלבו – You will not carry an Aveirah if you separate the best. The converse – attributing an Aveirah where one did not separate the best, implies that if an inferior separation were not valid, there would be no Aveirah. Therefore, it must be that such a separation is Assur, but valid. The Sifri phrases this derivation in past terms – How do I know that if one separated inferior Terumah that he has transgressed? The Har Tzvi (א"ח 2:7) wonders why the Sifri didn't simply ask: How do I know that one should not do such a thing, instead of asking about a done deed. Tosafos questions the Gemara's derivation, pointing out that the Posuk could mean that one transgresses on the attempt alone, even if the separation were invalid. However, Tosafos concludes that there are two sins here – the act of inferior separation, and the creation of inferior Terumah. According to R' Akiva Eiger (א"ח end of Bava Metzia) one is obligated to "undue" inferior Terumah and re-separate properly. Therefore, the Har Tzvi concludes, the Sifri asks quite correctly: How do I know that after having separated inferior Terumah, there is an Aveirah for keeping such Terumah, besides the obvious Aveirah of the separation? It is derived from the converse of the words: ולא תשא עליו חטא, as a second Aveirah.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

If one has given birth to twins – a boy and a girl, and both are hungry, which of them should be fed first?

ANSWER TO LAST WEEK:

(Is marrying a Bas "Zevulun" equal to marrying a Bas Talmid Chochom?)

The Gemara (Pesachim 49a) explains that by marrying the daughter of a Talmid Chochom, one is assured that his children will be raised to become Talmidei Chachomim (if something should happen to him). This assurance might not extend to the home of a Torah supporter. However, it would probably extend to the Pshat that allows a girl to be defined intrinsically as a Bas Talmid Chochom on her own merits without requiring her father to actually be a Talmid Chochom.

DIN'S CORNER:

One is not permitted to lure away a gentile maid or cleaning lady from another (observant) Jew with the promise of more money, better conditions etc.. unless the maid has already left the employ of the first Jew. As long as she is still employed there, even if she says she wants to leave, one may not even hint to her that another opportunity exists for her. One may only reiterate "As long as you work for another, I have no interest; if you no longer work for another, I may be interested." (Teshuvos V'Hanhagos 2:714))

DID YOU KNOW THAT

The Gemara (Shabbos 89a) states that when Moshe was in Shomayim, each of the Malochim gave him a gift. The gift he received from the Maloch HaMovess was the secret of how to stop a plague by burning Ketoress while standing between those who had already died and those who were still alive. This proved effective when the Bnei Yisroel were smitten with a plague for accusing Moshe and Aharon of having caused the deaths of Korach and his group. The Netziv (Haamek Davar) opines that Moshe told Aharon to prepare the Ketoress in the Mishkan in anticipation that there would be a need for it. Once made properly, Aharon would violate only "minor" Issurim in burning it in the camp, outside the Mishkan. However, Aharon hoped that their Tefilos would make it all unnecessary, and therefore did nothing until the plague had started. He then prepared and burned the Ketoress in the camp, transgressing the more serious Aveirah of making Ketoress outside the Mishkan, since it was obviously Pikuach Nefesh by this point. The Netziv derives from here that in matters of Pikuach Nefesh, if one is certain of the danger, it is better to do what is necessary on Friday – even if it violates Yom Tov (a relatively minor לאו), than to do it on Shabbos itself (which is a more serious כרת Aveirah). If however, the Pikuach Nefesh is not certain, it is better to wait until it becomes certain, at which time whatever is necessary may be done, regardless of the severity of the Aveirah. Igros Moshe (א"ח 3:69) strongly disagrees, since if there was no danger on Friday-YomTov, one shouldn't be permitted to do even a minor Aveirah on Yom Tov. The Shulchan Aruch (א"ח 306:14) rules that one may violate Shabbos to rescue one's daughter who is being dragged away from Shemiras HaMitzvos (so that she will observe many future Shabbasos). Is this not the same as transgressing Yom Tov to ensure observance of the subsequent Shabbos? Igros Moshe says no. The daughter's Chilul of future Shabbasos would be done without excuse or Heter. It must therefore be prevented immediately at all cost. In the case of Pikuach Nefesh however, the Chilul Shabbos would be done with a Heter. As such, there is no excuse to preempt it on Yom Tov.

A Lesson Can Be Learned From:

When the Chasam Sofer reached an age where he found it difficult to deliver a Shiur in his Yeshiva, he asked that his son R' Avrohom Shmuel Binyomin (the future Ksav Sofer) be appointed in his place. As he was still very young, there were some Talmidim who were skeptical of his ability to fill his father's shoes. However, when he gave his first Shiur, it was apparent to all that he was truly his father's son and many hurried in to tell the Chasam Sofer and give him some Nachas. As tears glistened in the Chasam Sofer's eyes he said: "Did you think that I merited to have such a son for nothing? From the moment he was born, there was not a single Tefilah where I did not shed tears for his Hatzlacha in Torah".
